By registered letter dated April 6, (postmarked April 2) captioned individual commented on the Director's book, "Masters of Deceit," and extended her best wishes to Mr. Hoover. After remarking about the book, Mrs. [REDACTED] states "Should you desire to send an answer of any form to this letter, please consider yourself at will to do so but use the utmost care as I wish you could help me as I have problems, but I live very quietly as an American who has two sons and loves America."

Bureau files reflect no records identifiable with Mrs. [REDACTED]. In view of the somewhat rambling nature of the letter and Mrs. [REDACTED] expressed desire to have the Director help her with her problems which she does not describe, it is believed advisable not to acknowledge the letter. It is noted that the letter is registered. This is a common trait of chronic or irrational correspondents.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

MASTERS OF DECEIT 62941

Recently you wrote a book which went on sale, I first knew of your book through the newspapers. My desire would be to write a long letter of praise. Newspapers are remarkable and I am glad that as just a plain ordinary American citizen that I can take this opportunity to write you which is one of our privileges as an American.

For a person who was misled about Communism and then came to your office with valuable aid to America is wonderful. I am thankful for people of that quality.

HOOVER Reveals the Communists' Plans in the United States

The FBI Chief Brings Out into the Open the Tactical Moves, Subversive Activities, Infiltration, Espionage, and Sabotage
of the Communist Party

THEY ARE INFILTRATING RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

HOOVER Makes a Dramatic Call to Stop the Actions of the Red Conspirators. The Taking Over of the Government is Their Prime Objective.

Washington, March 8, (INS). A keen and penetrating account of communism in America is given by the Director of the FBI, J. EDGAR HOOVER, in a book entitled, "Masters of Deceit," which is to be published on Monday, the tenth.

HOOVER relates with great authenticity the continuous campaign of the Communist Party to achieve its prime objective, the overthrow of the Government of the United States.

ENCLOSURE

The man who has headed the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) since 1924, and a Special Assistant to the Attorney General, is the person who is best qualified to expose the conspiracy. He began his study of communism thirty-nine years ago.

"Masters of Deceit" is a dramatic study, with direct knowledge, of communist strategy and its tactics, subversive activities, infiltration, espionage, sabotage, and brainwashings.

HOOVER establishes his premise simply by stating the following: "Every citizen has a duty to learn more about the menace that threatens his home, his children, the peace of the world - and that is why I have written this book."

In 374 pages filled with sensational information heretofore unknown, the author has opened the curtain of mystery which had always hidden the communist conspiracy and graphically reveals his plans of combat which each citizen should follow in combating this cancerous threat confronting the American nation.

The principal parts of the book include the following:

The communist objective - HOOVER says, "The Party's objective is to force a wedge, no matter how small, in as many minds as possible. That is the reason why, in every manner possible, the communists are attempting to change our way of thinking on current matters such as social reforms, peace, politics, veterans, women, and problems of youth."

The communist revolution in the United States - "The communists do not propose to change our government or retain any part of its present structure. They would eliminate it, destroy all opposition, and then establish a new government, an American province in the Soviet world empire."

Soviet agents - HOOVER points out that many of the leaders of the Communist Party of the United States are graduates of the LENIN School in Moscow that trains groups of skillful international conspirators to serve the reds. He identifies the following as being among them: EUGENE DENNIS,

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CARL WINTER, SIMON W. GERSON, WILLIAM WEINSTONE, NAT GAYLEY, STEVE NELSON, BETTY GANNETT, GUS HALL, ALBERT LANNON, PHIL BART, ROSE WORTIS, LORETTA STACK, and HENRY WINSTON.

Spies - HOOVER says: "The United States is the number one target of tactical and strategic Soviet spies. Every effort is being made to penetrate our defenses."

Examples of what a red spy looks for - "Any person who thinks that the purpose of espionage is only to obtain military information does not know the nature of espionage in the twentieth century. A military manual, security regulations of a government building, the 'political opinions' of an industrial plant employee, and incidents in the lives of prominent personages that can be used for blackmail, those and many more are targets that are highly valued by spies."

Religious organizations - The FBI Chief says, "The Party is today dedicated to a systematic program for infiltrating American religious organizations." Communists are trained to "join church bodies and to devote themselves to religious works." This serves as a screen of respectability and provides them with a cover for distributing propaganda and gives them an opportunity to have contact with youth.

Subversive activities - HOOVER describes the underground communist movement as a "maze of couriers, escape routes, hide-outs, and clandestine meetings." He says, "Only the most trusted and dedicated members of the Party are chosen" for these operations.

The Negroes - HOOVER says, "The Party claims that it is fighting for the rights of Negroes. This is a deception and a fraud. The only interest of the Party, as the majority of American Negroes know, is to take advantage of them, exploit them, and use them as instruments to convert America to communism."

Party discipline - "Communism," says the FBI Chief, "is cannibalistic. Its servants are periodically offered as sacrifices on the communist altar." He points out that "the inhuman depravity, hate, and rancor to which the Party has descended is denoted in the orders which seek vengeance on all those that have been expelled."

HOOVER offers a good description of what the United States would be like if converted into a "dictatorship of the proletariat."

The national capital "would be transferred from Washington, District of Columbia, to a great industrial center, probably Chicago." The system of national and state governments would be abolished. In their place Soviets would be established.

The hierarchy and "executors" of the Communist Party would "deprive of office and probably liquidate" the mayors, chiefs of police, clergymen, and civic leaders. All industry would be nationalized. Farms would be taken away from their owners.

Innumerable positions would be eliminated. Among them would be wholesale merchants, large scale middlemen, real estate agents, stockholders, specialists in propaganda and advertising, traveling salesmen, lawyers, and whatever the Party says is "all the gamut of bureaucrats, government officials, police officers, clergymen, and loathsome capitalists who dedicate themselves to fraud and plunder."

In his cry of alert for action against the red conspirators, HOOVER emphasizes the fact that "we cannot afford the luxury of waiting for communism to continue its course as other oppressive dictatorships have done." He offers the following five point program:

That every citizen devote a few moments of his daily life to study the Bible and the basic documents of American history. The result, "We would have a new America, vigilant, strong but ever humble in the service of God."

Examples by adults demonstrating that "it is possible to combine idealism with solid practicality and patience."

Action - Young people and adults should become "working members of our republic and citizens on duty at all times."

Positive action - HOOVER advises that "we should strive for goals that are genuinely better, higher, and more noble, trying to better ourselves for our community and our country."

Faith - HOOVER says, "A communist prides himself on being a revolutionary and revolutionary he is, in the sense of destruction, terror, and violence. Free man could learn here in this field too."

"The true revolutionary force of history is not material power but the spirit of religion. The world today needs a true revolutionary of fruitful spirit, not the futile sword."

Revela Hoover los planes comunistas en Estados Unidos

Desentraña el Jefe del FBI las maquinaciones tácticas, actividades subversivas, filtración, espionaje y sabotaje del Partido Comunista

MEZCLANSE EN LOS GRUPOS RELIGIOSOS

Hace E. Hoover una dramática llamada para paralizar la acción de los conspiradores rojos. Asalto al poder, su objetivo señalado

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8. (INS.)

Una aguda y penetrante relación sobre el comunismo en América es expuesta por el director del FBI, J. Edgar Hoover, en un libro titulado "Masters of Deceit" (Maestros del Engaño), que será publicado el lunes 10.

Hoover relata con auténtica documentación la continua campaña del Partido Comunista hacia su primer objetivo: La toma del Poder de Gobierno en Estados Unidos.

El hombre que ha dirigido el Buró Federal de Investigaciones (FBI) desde 1924 es el mejor indicado para exponer la conspiración como asistente especial del Ministro de Justicia, comenzó su estudio del comunismo hace 33 años.

"Master of Deceit" es un estudio dramático de casi cuatro décadas, con conocimiento directo, de la estrategia comunista. Sus tácticas, sus actividades subversivas, la infiltración, espionaje, sabotaje y "lavados cerebrales".

Hoover establece su premisa con sencillez, en estas palabras: "Cada ciudadano tiene el deber de aprender más sobre el peligro que amenaza su futuro, su hogar, sus hijos, la paz del mundo, y por eso es que escribí este libro".

En 374 páginas, saturadas de información sensacional no conocida, el autor despeja la cortina de misterio tras la que siempre se ha ocultado la conspiración comunista, y revela gráficamente sus planes de lucha que debe seguir cada ciudadano individualmente para combatir la canchalesa amenaza a esta nación norteamericana.

Los puntos principales del libro incluyen:

—El objetivo comunista. Hoover dice: "El objetivo del partido es forzar una cuna, no importa cuán pequeña, en tantas mentes como sea posible. Por eso es que, en toda forma concebible, los comunistas tratan de envenenar nuestra forma de pensar sobre las cuestiones del momento: reformas sociales, paz política, veteranos, mujeres y problemas de la juventud".

—Revolución comunista en Estados Unidos. "Los comunistas no proponen remodelar nuestro Gobierno o retener ninguna parte de su actual estructura. Lo eliminarían, destruirían toda oposición y luego crearían un nuevo Gobierno, una provincia americana en el imperio mundial soviético".

—Agentes soviéticos. Hoover destaca que muchos de los líderes del Partido Comunista en Estados Unidos son graduados de la Escuela Lenin en Moscú, que entrena un grupo de hábiles conspiradores internacionales al servicio de los rojos. Identifica como tales a Eugene Dennis, Claude Lichtfoot, Carl Winter, Simón W. Gerson, William Weinstone, Nat. Ganley, Steve Nelson, Betty Gannett, Gus Hall, Albert Lannon, Phil Part, Rose Wortis, Loretta Steak y Henry Wington.

—Espías. Hoover advierte: "Estados Unidos es el blanco número uno de los espías tácticos y estratégicos soviéticos. Se hace todo esfuerzo para penetrar nuestras defensas".

—Ejemplos de lo que busca un espía rojo. "Cualquier persona que cree que el fin del espionaje es gestionar un gobierno informante militar no conoce la naturaleza del espionaje del Siglo XX. Un panfleto militar, reglamentos de seguridad de un edificio oficial, las opiniones "políticas" de un empleado en una firma industrial, incidentes en la vida de personas prominentes pueden usar para chantaje. Esos y muchos otros así son blancos preciados de los espías".

—Grupos religiosos. El jefe del FBI dice: "El partido está dedicado hoy a un programa sistemático de infiltración en grupos religiosos norteamericanos. Los comunistas son enseñados a "asociarse a iglesias y dedicarse al trabajo religioso". Esto les sirve de pantalla de "espetabilidad" y les provee un medio encubierto de distribuir propaganda y la oportunidad de tener contacto con la juventud.

—Operaciones subversivas. Hoover describe el movimiento subterráneo comunista como "una masa de correos, rutas de escape, escondites y reuniones clandestinas". Dice que "únicamente los más confiables y dedicados miembros del partido son escogidos" para estas operaciones.

—Los negros. Hoover dice: "El partido reclama que está luchando por los derechos de los negros. Eso es un engaño y un fraude. El único interés del partido, como lo sabe la mayoría de los negros norteamericanos, es aprovecharlos, explotarlos y utilizarlos como instrumentos para convertir a América al comunismo".

—Disciplina de partido. "El comunismo", dice el jefe del FBI, "es un híbrido. Sus seguidores son periódicamente ofrecidos como víctimas del sacrificio en el altar comunista". Señala que "el fondo de la depravación, odio y rencor inhumano al cual ha descendido el partido, se denota en las órdenes para ejercer venganza contra aquellos que son expulsados".

Hoover ofrece una buena descripción de lo que sería Estados Unidos convertido en "una dictadura del proletariado".

La capital nacional "sería transferida de Washington, Distrito de Columbia, a un gran centro industrial, probablemente Chicago". El sistema de Gobierno nacional y estatales sería eliminado. En su lugar surgiría un "Soviet".

Los jefes y "ejecutores" del Partido Comunista "derivarían y probablemente liquidarían" los alcaldes, jefes de policía, clérigos y líderes cívicos. Toda la industria sería nacionalizada. Las haciendas serán arrebatadas a sus dueños.

Se eliminarán incontables posiciones, entre ellas las de comerciantes al por mayor, intermediarios en grande escala, negociantes en bienes raíces, accionistas, especialistas en propaganda y anuncios, vendedores viajeros, abogados y lo que el partido dice es "toda la gama de burocratas gubernamentales, policías, clérigos y asquerosos capitalistas que se dedican al fraude y el pillaje".

En su llamada de alerta para acción contra los conspiradores rojos, Hoover recalca que "no podemos gastarnos el lujo de esperar que el comunismo siga su curso como otras dictaduras opresoras", sugiere el siguiente programa de cinco puntos:

—Que cada ciudadano dedique algún momento de su vida diaria a estudiar la Biblia y los documentos básicos de la historia norteamericana. Resultado: "Tendríamos una América nueva, vigilante, fuerte, pero aun humilde al servicio de Dios".

—Ejemplos de los adultos demostrando que "es posible combinar el idealismo con la práctica sólida y la paciencia".

—Acción. La gente joven y los adultos deben ser miembros ocupados de nuestra República y ciudadanos en misión de todo momento.

—Actitud "positiva". Hoover aconseja que "nosotros debemos luchar por metas genuinamente mejores, más altas y más nobles, tratando de mejorarnos a nosotros mismos, a nuestra comunidad y nuestra nación".

—Fe. Hoover dice: "El comunista siente orgullo de ser revolucionario. Y lo es el sentido de la destrucción, el terror y la violencia. El hombre libre puede aprender en este campo también. La verdadera fuerza revolucionaria de la historia no es el poder material, sino el espíritu de la religión. El mundo condado revolucionario del espíritu fructífero, no la espada fútil".

My dear Mr. Hoover

Thank you for writing "Masters of Deceit." Would it be possible to put out a condensed, inexpensive (.50) copy, which could be sold on all the newsstands through-out the nation? Only please add three-fold to your warning on our present danger.

My fellow traveler, do gooder, one wolder friends say, 'Nonsense your thinking is hysterical and out of date there may have been danger at one time but no more.'

One paragraph in your book puzzles me. On page 257 you praise several organizations as giving effective opposition to Communism. From my observation not all those listed do.

It might be interesting to ask the help of the Anti-Defamation league in financing and editing the publication, of your informative book at a popular price. Maybe they could manage the world wide publicity which it merits.

With sincere gratitude to, and admiration for, the organization which you have created.

16. Eugene Dennis (left), the one-time General Secretary of the Communist Party, and Irving Potash being taken to the Federal penitentiary, after conviction in 1949 in a long drawn-out trial before Federal Judge Harold Medina in New York, of teaching and advocating the overthrow of the United States government by force and violence. Potash was an international vice president of the Fur and Leather Workers' Union.

Convicted with Dennis and Potash were John Gates, John B. Williamson, Gilbert Green, Carl Winter, Gus Hall, Benjamin Davis, Jr., Henry Winston, Jacob Stachel, Robert G. Thompson. The FBI had assembled in 1946-1947 a brief running to more than 1,300 pages, of its investigation of the Communist Party and CP leaders, and this led to the indictments under the Smith Act which produced the convictions of the leaders named above. W. Z. Foster escaped trial through securing a separation of his case from the others on grounds of illness. (New York Mirror Photo)

17. Left to right, next to the Federal marshal: Claudia Jones, Betty Gannett and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn being taken to court after a Federal judge ruled that bonds furnished by the "Civil Rights Congress" for fifteen indicted Communists were unacceptable. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, ran in 1957 for the New York City Council under the emblem of the "People's Rights Party," after communists obtained 3,000 signatures on petitions required by law to place her name on the ballot.

J. Edgar Hoover reveals in "Masters of Deceit" that Betty Gannett was one of the graduates of the Lenin School in Moscow, a training-center for underground and conspiratorial operations and the tactics of revolution and civil war.

Other Lenin School graduates from the United States, identified by Mr. Hoover: Eugene Dennis, Claude Lightfoot, Carl Winter, Simon W. Gerson, William Weinstone, Nat Ganley, Steve Nelson, Gus Hall, Albert Lannon, Phil Bart, Rose Wortis, Loretta Stack, Henry Winston.

18. Benjamin Davis, Jr., one of the eleven communist leaders convicted under the Smith Act in 1949, was a member of the New York City Council when convicted. The Council ousted Davis on the ground that the conviction disqualified him. 20. Ethel and Julius Rosenberg on their way to prison after their conviction in 1951 on espionage conspiracy charges, on evidence collected by the FBI. Judge Irving Kaufman in sentencing them to death, declared, "I consider your crime worse than murder. Plain deliberate contemplated murder is dwarfed in magnitude by comparison with the crime you have committed. In committing the act of murder, the criminal kills only his victim...But in your case, I believe your conduct in putting into the hands of the Russians the A-bomb, years before our best scientists predicted Russia would perfect the bomb, has already caused, in my opinion, the Communist aggression in Korea, with the resultant casualties exceeding 50,000 and who knows but that millions more of innocent people may pay the price of your treason. Indeed, by your betrayal you undoubtedly have altered the course of history to the disadvantage of our country..."

The Rosenbergs were executed at Sing Sing Prison after a great hue and cry of "frame-up" had been raised by the Communist Party through its front organizations, and the case had been reviewed more than sixteen times in Federal courts. The New York Journal-American, in 1951, revealed the fact that the Rosenbergs had been instrumental in informing Russia, in 1947, of U.S. plans for a moon satellite.. (I.N.P. Photo)

J. Edgar Hoover points out in "Masters of Deceit," "More than any other man Lenin is the 'developer' of modern communism and the father of Party structure and dictatorship. His importance is reflected in the communist description of its way of life as the 'science of Marxism-Leninism.' ... Lenin made Marxism a highly disciplined, organized and ruthless creed. How can revolution be achieved? Not by democratic reforms, ballots, or good will, but by naked, bloody violence... Lenin conceived of the Party as a vehicle of revolution. Marx, in his philosophical abstractions, had never thought out the day-to-day composition of the Party. Lenin did. The Party must be a small, tightly controlled, deeply loyal group. Fanaticism, not members, was the key. They must lie, cheat, and murder if the Party was to be served. No deviations could be permitted.

"Lenin founded the Third International (better known as the Communist International, or Comintern). The Third International was a keystone of Soviet policy, whereby Moscow, through Bolshevik discipline, could guide the activities of communists around the world, including those in the United States ... Lenin proclaimed at the first Congress of the Comintern, 'the victory of the world Communist revolution is assured.' ..."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Provided this letter gets beyond your secretary I would like you to know I think your book MASTERS OF DECEIT is the best book I have ever read. I started reading it this morning and I have just finished it. I think it should be required reading for every adult. I have always wanted an answer to the question "Why does anyone join the Party"? You have devoted considerable space to this question and have partially answered it for me. Because I believe the U.S.A. with all its faults and virtues is the best on earth, it is difficult for me to understand anyone who differs with that point of view. You have given a very clear and understandable explanation of the party organization. I have a clearer understanding of its organization from your book than I have ever had from any other book I have ever read on the subject. It is a wonderful book and I enjoyed every word.

In connection with your request, I thought you would like to know that one of Mr. Hoover's favorite stories concerns the occasion when he was scared by a black cat. During a raid on the Roger Touhy gang in 1942, he stepped on the cat's tail, and the cat's screech, Mr. Hoover frankly admits, was his greatest moment of fear.

THE DALLAS TIMES HERALD

Monday, March 31, 1958

Says Hoover Book Doesn't Clear Gates

To The Times Herald:

Roscoe Drummond, in a recent column in The Times Herald, gave a report on the new book, "Masters of Deceit," by J. Edgar Hoover. Mr. Drummond says, in part:

"The defections are mounting. Besides Louis Budenz, Bella Dodd and others, the deconverted Communists include such distinguished defectors as John Gates, former editor of the now defunct Daily Worker; Joseph Clark, former foreign editor, and Howard Fast, the American novelist, winner of the Stalin award."

Four of them evidently have been screened and found to be worthy of our confidence. But John Gates is not so classified anywhere in this book. His name appears only twice, on pages 77 and 165, respectively. In neither place is he mentioned as one who has broken with the Communist party. To include him with the others, ostensibly with the blessing of J. Edgar Hoover, is a twisting of text, a false interpretation, and an unpardonable intrusion of "See Me" under the cloak of "Ipse Dixit."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

You will be interested to learn that we have purchased a thousand copies of "Masters of Deceit" and are spreading them around in strategic places. Who knows this book may be the means of awakening the American people in time to forestall the coming Communist try for power seizure in this country.

The following information is being set forth regarding the 7-page Central Research memorandum which contained the information that Simon Gerson attended the Lenin School. This memorandum, as you know, was used as documentation for this statement in "Masters of Deceit."

1) This memorandum was used as documentation upon the specific instructions of former Assistant to the Director L. B. Nichols. In fact, upon the Lenin School insert, in Mr. Nichols' handwriting appears the notation, "Sullivan's memo. attached," indicating that this memorandum was to be used in the documentation. Accordingly, our documenters, following the procedures established by Mr. Nichols, documented to this Central Research memorandum. But this document originated source

This memorandum was accepted at face value, as it was prepared at the specific request of a Bureau official for specific use in the book. Never did we have any understanding with Mr. Nichols that we should suspect the accuracy of Central Research information. To receive such a detailed memorandum and then assert that it had to be completely rechecked would have been duplication and a loss of time. Mr. Nichols and our documenters received it in full expectation that it was accurate. As shall be described below, this was exactly the same procedure as was followed in documenting Don Whitehead's "The FBI Story."

2) A further clue to Mr. Nichols' idea that such a Central Research memorandum should be used as documentation can be seen in a memorandum from Mr. Nichols to Mr. Tolson dated September 25, 1957 (62-104277-14). This memorandum enclosed a brief insert written by Mr. Nichols for Part I of the book, dealing with Communist Party membership statistics. Mr. Nichols himself documented the insert and two of his documentation notes read as follows:

"4e. Compilation prepared by Central Research.

"4f. Compilation prepared by Central Research."

Both of these documentation notes refer specifically to material prepared by the Central Research Section. This material is exactly similar in nature to the 7-page Lenin School memorandum. Hence, to Mr. Nichols' mind the material prepared by Central Research Section should be used as documentation.

3) In the memorandum from Mr. Belmont to Mr. Boardman dated 3-27-58, the 7-page Central Research Section memorandum is described as being a "rough draft." It was rough draft in the sense of not being on regular memorandum paper or routed through channels, but it was not rough draft in the sense that it could be considered as being inaccurate, incomplete or unverified. Why prepare a memorandum for a Bureau official if reservations are maintained as to the accuracy of the information contained therein? As stated above, Mr. Nichols and our documenters considered this memorandum as valid for documentation. It is to be noted that the Central Research memoranda documented by Mr. Nichols personally, mentioned above in #2, were of the same so-called rough draft type as the Lenin School memorandum.

4) The Simon Gerson item was documented by two Special Agents; one, an Agent of Crime Records, the other an Agent of the Domestic Intelligence Division. In each instance these agents, following Mr. Nichols' instructions, used the Central Research Lenin School memorandum as basic source material. They had no reason to doubt its accuracy.

5) Two Special Agents of the Domestic Intelligence Division, at the request of Mr. Nichols, rechecked the text and sources used in the book. Both of these Special Agents state that in their review, at Mr. Nichols' specific instructions, they used the sources indicated in the original documentation, which included Central Research material, as basic sources. They did not go behind these items unless they felt there was need for further checking to see if the facts as set forth conveyed the precise meaning desired, etc. This was also the understanding of Crime Records personnel. *

6) The policy of using material prepared by the Central Research Section as basic documentation sources in "Masters of Deceit" was likewise the policy used in documenting Don Whitehead's "The FBI Story." As you will recall, Mr. Nichols requested various divisions of the Bureau, including the Central Research Section, to prepare research material for Mr. Whitehead's use. Most of the research was submitted to Mr. Nichols in so-called "informal" or "rough draft" form, that is, not on the standard memorandum form and not routed through channels. However, this did not mean that this material was not to be regarded as accurate. This data was prepared on specific request of a Bureau official for specific use in "The FBI Story." Hence, it was considered as basic source material and used as documentation. Mr. Nichols constantly emphasized to all those performing research functions the absolute necessity for accuracy in all material given to him for Mr. Whitehead's use. This was true of all material, whether it be a routing slip, an informal memorandum or any other type of data.

To expect the documenting Agents to re-research such material would indeed be a duplication of effort. In the interests of getting the Whitehead book finished, it was absolutely necessary to stop somewhere - and that was on the level of the basic research.

Dear Sir:

This letter is merely an expression of appreciation for your great book, "Masters of Deceit", by J. Edgar Hoover. I hope you will sell a million copies! And, I'm doing my best to promote the sale.

In my work for my good company, I have an opportunity to speak throughout the U.S.A. to many organizations--mainly women's groups (state conventions and other large groups). In April, ten such meetings are on my schedule--in Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana - one talk in St. Louis.

As I have done since I read "Masters of Deceit" in early March, I shall open my talk with the suggestion that everyone in the audience get the book, read it, and see to it that at least five other people read that copy. The "lending idea" may not be good "sales copy", but the book should make all of us more keenly aware of our duties and obligations as citizens.

My thanks to Henry Holt.

In reading my home town paper, "The Herald Journal", I was very pleased to see several very fine references to you and your latest book "Master of Deceit", along with a very fine and inspiring picture of yourself.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Congratulations upon the publication of your book, "Masters of Deceit". According to the Brooklyn Tablet, Archbishop Cushing has ordered several thousand copies for distribution throughout his diocese. This is wonderful. I wish all the bishops would do likewise.

For the past three weeks I have been trying to get a copy of your book, and of Mr. Morris' "Why We Are Losing" from our local libraries, but have been unsuccessful. At first the Main Branch told me it was on order and when it arrived would be placed in the Labor and Business Department. Why it would repose here instead of in the general circulation department is still beyond me. Next I placed a request for it in the East Akron Branch Library and there I was told they would request it from Main Branch. Today I am told it is still on order at Main Branch, but that Mr. Morris' book is not on order and there is no likelihood that it will be ordered.

This is not the first time I have have a struggle to get a book exposing the Communist Conspiracy from our libraries. I hope when I finally get to read your book that you will have recorded in it some explanation of the strange conspiracy seeming to exist in our nation's public libraries, financed with our taxes.

May God bless you Mr. Hoover, and may you continue your gruelling work for many more years. It's certainly a thankless job, and so many Americans don't even seem interested, but God knows the extent of your struggle and He is keeping the score.

WORLD FAMOUS director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover, is author of the great book, "Masters of Deceit," which will be published serially by The Herald Journal.

HIS WARNING ---

H. J. To Publish FBI Chief's Book

"Masters of Deceit." J. Edgar Hoover's gripping and at times almost incredible story of the subterranean activities of Communist Party members in this country, will run serially in the Herald Journal starting Sunday, April 13, another excellent feature of this paper which over the years has kept its readers abreast of the times with the best reporting of the local and national scene.

The Herald Journal is the first paper in Utah to acquire the serialized rights to publish Mr. Hoover's book. Twenty-eight daily installments will appear to present the complete work.

"Masters of Deceit" tells how a Communist cell is formed, how a Communist meeting is held, how a top Communist Party official lives, what goes on in the Communist underground, how the Party functions as a state within a state with its own "laws" and "courts," why people become Communists and why they break away, Communist techniques of espionage and sabotage, and hundreds of incidents and anecdotes to illustrate how the Communists live and think, what their aims are, how they are carrying out those aims every day.

Mr. Hoover states, "Every citizen has a duty to learn more about the menace that threatens his future, his home, his children, the peace of the world—that is why I have written this book."

Dear Mr. Hoover-

Thank you for writing the book

MASTERS OF DECEIT- published by Henry Holt Co, of New York.

You will note by the attached that I have expressed appreciation to the Dorothy H and Lewis Rosenstiel Foundation, for their gift of this excellent document to our local library.

Having been a Y M C A secretary all my professional career, and then after retirement a business executive/a large church in Cleveland Ohio, (The Church of the Covenant-Presbyterian) for another 5 and a half years. I feel that this is the sort of a study book that religious leaders should read with great care.

Ten of those years I was on loan to the Y M C A of China, and I saw the rise of the Communist power in that country, and in the USA experienced some of the pressures that they put upon us to endorse or lend our names or cooperate with some of their propaganda.

We congratulate you on the challenging chapters, and your fine expression of Christian faith and hope you have given us in the last part of the book. I only hope that READERS DIGEST will select your masterpiece as one to publish in a forthcoming issue of the magazine. Not that it should be condensed, but the tremendous opportunity of volume readership would be of tremendous help in getting the story across.

Also if Dave Garroway on NBC TODAY could be persuaded to interview you, either in New York, or at your Washington office, in reference to this book, it would be a good follow-up of this special program they are putting on this week on the problems of juvenile crime and parent delinquency.

Dear Friends-

Having just completed the book, "Masters of Deceit" by J Edgar Hoover, I want to express my sincere appreciation to you for making this available to our Public Library.

It is a great document that should be read by Community leaders in School, church, synagogue, political office, and parents and others who should be concerned about the democratic and free system of life.

This book should be a MUST on the reading lists of high school upper class men and college students.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company is one of the oldest iron mining companies in the United States. The company operates iron ore mines in Minnesota and Michigan. One of its public relations activities is the publication of an internal or house magazine. This has a circulation of about 6,500. To give you a cross-section, several issues are enclosed.

In most issues we have quoted from the comments of national leaders, possibly relating to Americanism, economics or so forth, on an occasion a United States Senator or a head of industry. In the February, 1958 issue, alluding to the danger of inflation, we quoted the statements of His Excellency, President Eisenhower. May we have your permission to excerpt from your last book on communism, "Masters of Deceit"? Attached is a layout page from the magazine showing the way it would appear if we have your consent to use this information.

For publication, unfortunately, we have a very limited budget and much as we would like to we are unable to pay royalty.

Hon. Ralph Flanders

Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Flanders,

I have lately seen advertisements in the press of a book allegedly written by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F. B. I., in which Hoover is said to express concern over the 'menace' to our 'freedom' that resides in the tawdry remnants of the Communist Party in America. Is the Department of Justice interested only in weak, ineffectual and disorganized conspiracies to violate law?

I call to your attention a meeting held earlier this week in Philadelphia by a group known as the ~~National~~ Catholic Education Association. According to a report published in the NEW YORK TIMES of above date, a 'keynote' speech made by one Joseph Timmelly, described as 'dean and professor of St. John's University Law School,' openly and brazenly advocated a conspiracy to violate the laws of this country which forbid state and federal support of religious institutions.

I do not think the U. S. A. can any longer afford to maintain a huge secret police force for the purpose of providing

I suggest that Hoover has outlived his usefulness to our government. There is little sense in shadowing fuzzy-minded screwballs with no claim to popular influence, in the name of law enforcement, when self-styled 'education associations' numbering into the ten thousands are allowed to teach violation of this nation's basic laws without rebuke or hindrance.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I just had to write you and tell you that I have just finished reading your wonderful book.

There should be some way provided that the Teenagers of our Era should be made to read & understand the message you put forth in "Masters of Deceit." Could you not, in some way, write a more simplified Teenage version. A lot of our Teenage problems could be solved that way. Your very clear understanding of Communism & your prominent personality might make a percentage of our young people sit up & take notice. I many times thank God that we have a man such as you at the Helm. I pray that when the good Lord feels that when your time comes that there will be another as capable as you to carry on, but in the meantime, may the good Lord preserve you through, our now most difficult times, & preserve you for a long time to come.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

The pleasure of a visit, with

I live in a small country village on the Eastern Shore world that no longer exists. Your book answered so many questions about this sinister thing called

Possibly I should not say this, but, after I finished the book, I read the "Glossary," and was so pleased to see that having read your book very thoughtfully and

I have always admired the work you do for my country

SIMON GERSON'S CRITICISM OF THE DIRECTOR'S BOOK, "MASTERS OF DECEIT," WHICH APPEARS IN "THE WORKER"
APRIL 13, 1958.

Reference is made to the memorandum from Mr. Sizoo to Mr. Belmont dated April 11, 1958, which sets forth the Gerson review of the Director's book.

It was noted in referenced memorandum that a check would be made into Gerson's criticism of that portion of the Director's book relating to communist candidates for public office.

Gerson's Criticism:

"Hoover writes: 'Never has the Party, running under its own name, been able to secure many votes. In instances where Party candidates have run under their own colors, their defeats have almost invariably been disastrous *. In instances, however, where the Party has maneuvered political alliances, it has achieved more successes, as shown by the election of Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., and Peter Cacchione, both well-known communists, to the City Council of New York in the '40's.'

"The above is trickily false. Davis and Cacchione received 'many votes,' running near the top of the list in the Councilman elections - UNDER THE NAME OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. While the communists were part of a formal coalition movement both candidates ran clearly as communists and on communist programs. Reference to the Board of Elections reports and newspaper files of the period could have easily established the truth."

The full statement referred to by Gerson appears on pages 239-240 in "Masters of Deceit" as follows:

"A favorite field for communist fronts in the election campaign for public office. Running communist candidates for city, council, mayor, governor, even for the presidency of the United States, is an old Party habit. Never has the Party, running under its own name, been able to secure many votes. In instances

Mr. John Phillips, a former Bureau Agent, and now Security Control Officer, Department of Commerce, advised the writer that he would like to send a copy of the Director's book "Masters of Deceit" to his former boss at Commerce, Mr. Neuman Smith. Mr. Smith is now retired and living in Montgomery, Alabama. Phillips stated that he would certainly appreciate the Director's autographing a copy of his book to Mr. Smith. Phillips said that during Smith's tenure at Commerce, he was a great friend of the Bureau and an admirer of the Director, and Phillips knows that Smith would certainly appreciate a copy of the book, but would definitely be very happy with the Director's signature.

Dear Sir:

The State of Florida has recently been thrown into an uproar over the attempted inclusion of an indorsement of UNESCO in the State Platform. My husband is a district commander for the American Legion so we had some material from that source. I have also read much from other sources and am convinced that the motive and work of UNESCO is very Communistic.

As yet I have not had a chance to read your entire book, "Masters of Deceit". When I read my morning paper it came as quite a shock to read the enclosed clipping which appeared in Letters to the Editor in "The Orlando Morning Sentinel". I obtained a copy of the book and did not read the same meaning into the subject. I feel it is important for you to see this letter--if UNESCO is as Communistic as I think it is, I doubt if you want to be on record as endorsing it.

I feel so helpless when I read of the vast strides that Communism has made in this-country but I am "fighting mad" and willing to do anything to combat this evil. Today I received some material from "Cinema Educational Guild, Inc.". They seem to be doing an excellent job of combating Communism but I have made up my mind not to sign my name to anything unless it has clearance by the F.B.I. Maybe I am being over-cautious but when an organization like the P.T.A. is taken over, it really makes me stop to think.

My husband and I are willing to help in any way so any suggestions or advice on sources of material would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Hoover And UNESCO

Editor: I would like to quote from J. Edgar Hoover's new book, Masters of Deceit.

"The Communist Party's objective is to drive a wedge, however slight, into as many minds as possible. That is why, in every conceivable way, Communists try to poison our thinking about the issues of the day: Social reforms, peace, politics, veterans', women's, and youth problems. The more people they can influence, the stronger they will be."

Our thinking concerning support of the United Nations has certainly been poisoned. The technique is to keep repeating false information, hoping we will undermine the UN and its agencies. They hope we will withdraw from the world and leave it to communism. Do not let them succeed.

On page 168, J. Edgar Hoover quotes from the work of UNESCO. He uses UNESCO as a competent source which is alerting the world to the spread of communistic literature.

When J. Edgar Hoover himself uses UNESCO's findings as competent source material, we all realize that we've been wrongly informed against UNESCO.

Have enjoyed reading your article on Stalin and his book "Masters of Deceit". The Communist Attack on Judaism I was literally howled over when the commentators defended Hiss and the Rosenbergs. I asked a question associated with a big Jewish firm; "How do we know we're the Jews all over the world?" He said a man had written a book to that effect. I finally located it in a little book store. The Octopus written by Rev. Frank Woodruff Johnson. He stated it was the most colossal machine in the United States. I lived across from the Welfare Office in South Portland when Jewish and displaced persons were brought to one of these and Jews were brought to one of these and this book "The Octopus" was reviewed in the big New York all known to me. I reviewed it when I was arrested that big chapter. I could say they can't go into a Jewish home without seeing a Communist. I feel I have been a Communist.

IN OUR DAY, all about us is being waged the greatest ideological war this world has ever seen. The Communists have told us repeatedly, "We will enslave and destroy you, and reshape you into our Godless image." The way they tell it, doesn't sound too bad, until we look at the results of their conquest in other nations: Millions liquidated, other millions in slave labor camps, absolutely no freedom of thought or action. No unions, one cannot strike against the state. Those who have tried have been taught better than to try again.

All of these things have been documented time, and time again. However as Americans, we have an obligation to ourselves, and our Nation to find out the true story of Communism, so that we may know what it is, how it works, the aims, and the real danger it poses for us. One of the finest sources of this information is J. Edgar Hoover's new book, "Masters of Deceit." If you love your Country, and want to be able to spot these traitors for what they are, please read this book.

Every patriotic organization should obtain at least one copy, to circulate among its members; discussions should be held, so that we may know our real enemy, to fight, and make it ineffective. Make everyone realize, that to accept Communism is to jump from the frying pan into the fire of the hell of Communism. Everyone who wants to stay free, read "Masters of Deceit."

Miss [redacted] U.S.A. Director of Publicity, Henry Holt and Company, called and spoke to Mr. DeLoach on 4-7-58. She stated the Book of the Month Club desired to use the Director's signature in connection with its forthcoming publicity campaign concerning using "Masters of Deceit" as an alternate selection for the month of July, 1958. Miss [redacted] pointed out that the Book of the Month Club people desired to use the first paragraph in the foreword and the first paragraph on page three of the book. (MARKED)

She stated there was additional phraseology involved but she was not aware at this time of this phraseology. After mentioning this matter to you, Miss [redacted] was advised telephonically that prior to the Director's releasing his signature for purposes of Book of the Month Club advertisement, Miss [redacted] might desire to obtain the full text of the advertisement and advise us. She stated she thought this was sound and she would do it immediately.

Miss [redacted] called in at 4:30 p. m., 4-9-58, and stated that the phraseology in question had now been received. The said phraseology is attached to this memorandum. Review of the phraseology in question reflects no objections to the proposal by the Book of the Month Club. In fact, the planned publicity is very excellent. It is, therefore, recommended that DeLoach call Miss [redacted] back and tell her that Mr. Hoover has no objections to the usage of his signature with the advertisement mentioned.

The publicity in question will lead off with the two paragraphs mentioned above. The Director's signature will be used in connection with these paragraphs and again in connection with the one paragraph which appears first on the attached memorandum. The publicity will appear in the form of a folder which will be sent to the subscribers of the Book of the Month Club. The subscribers may either choose the monthly selection for July, 1958, or the Director's book. The cost to Book of the Month Club Members will be $4.50.

Quotes by various newspapers, as set forth in the attached memorandum, will also be included in the publicity.

expelled member: "Chalk his home with the slogan 'So-and-so who lives here is a spy.' Let the children boycott his children or child."

He asks and answers major questions - why men and women of good will are taken in, and why they leave or do not leave the Party. And here you will note the good will in the author himself when he scores those noncommunists who in "inexcusable ignorance, rancor and pride drive back into the Party those who have broken with it. This quality is again apparent, when, asking for cooperation of loyal citizens with the Bureau, he asks for facts, not tale bearing or rumors, and declares emphatically that dissent is not disloyalty. Masters of Deceit is one more good service rendered to his country by this scrupulous man who has served it so well under five Presidents.

Every citizen has a duty to learn more about the menace that threatens his future, his home, his children, the peace of the world - and that is why I have written Masters of Deceit. . . Many Americans have not stopped to realize what a Soviet America would mean. The communists, however, have no doubts. Their blueprints are already made. . . Let us look at their dream and see what it would mean to you and me and all the people we know.

J. Edgar Hoover

(Following is from a review in the New York Herald Tribune by John K. Hutchins)

For 39 years, or ever since its founding, the Communist Party of America has regarded John Edgar Hoover with a distaste he must cherish like a well-deserved medal. Masters of Deceit, his calm, documented analysis of American communism, doubtless will enhance a version his old enemies feel for him, and that too should make him happy. Even more satisfying to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's long-time Director, of course, would be the assurance that the noncommunist Americans who read it will heed its message. For Mr. Hoover, along with his Bureau, has spent more than half his life keeping an eye on the conspiracy to Sovietize America, is not among those impressed by the Party's decline in recent years. . .

He cites the categories in which communist thought control prevails: the open Party members, the concealed members, the fellow travelers, the petition-signing dupes. He outlines the day-by-day life of average communists under discipline, the sleazy duties they are called upon to perform, the money that is extracted from them. He examines the "democratic centralism" by which in the hierarchy of the Party, the few tyrannize over the many with a brutality all but incredible. Walter Winchell Says: to Hoover

Hoover's Red Report Is Detective Thriller

AK

"EVERY LITERATE MAN, woman and child in the United States should read J. Edgar Hoover's book, 'Masters of Deceit,' (published by Henry Holt) . . . Not because it is the greatest detective thriller of the century, but because it is a blueprint on how to defend the moral foundations of our country.

J. Edgar Hoover's services to our nation are among the greatest in history, but he has never performed greater public service than in writing 'Masters of Deceit.' His real-life pin-pointing of the Communist enemy makes the fictional detective tales look like tame nursery stories."

APRIL
On ~~September~~ 9, 1958, Mr. Joseph V Walsh, Director of Security, U. S. Information Agency (USIA), called Liaison and furnished the following information:

USIA is getting out a message to all principal USIA posts throughout the world asking for comments and recommendations for presentation of the Director's book "Masters of Deceit" to the person in each country who is "most nearly corresponding" to the Director of the FBI. It is hoped that after the recommendations are received USIA will be able to induce the Director to autograph copies of his book to these individuals.

Walsh stated that he did not know how many requests would be received from the USIA posts but did not think the volume would be too great. He assumed that all of the individuals would be satisfactory to the Bureau; however, he would have to wait until the recommendations are received to be sure. He stated that the reason for his mentioning this to Liaison was to, if possible, get an unofficial view before formally requesting the Director's autograph in this regard.

RECOMMENDATION:

It appears that much good could come from USIA presenting copies of "Masters of Deceit" to officials of other countries. However, the Director should not be committed to this program even though it is an excellent gesture on the part of USIA. The Director cannot be placed in a position of having to autograph some and not being able to autograph others because of derogatory or unfavorable information that may be in Bureau files on persons recommended by USIA. Accordingly and unless you disapprove, Walsh will be advised via Liaison that it is doubtful if the Director would agree to autographing books for persons in foreign countries whom he does not know. Walsh will be told that the Director appreciates the thought behind USIA's presenting these books to foreign officials and the Bureau has no objection to this even though the Director cannot commit himself to this program.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
The Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I have been reading your book and wish to compliment you. I admire your language and expression of ideas tremendously. There are several points that occur to me, however. I know of case histories back in 1905 that would indicate the communists were organized in our institutions and influencing home life before the czar was overthrown. If this is true, Marx and Lenin simply recorded rather than invented social situations. Also the fall of America is over due and was slated to occur before the Czar was over thrown.

We have Old World Stalinism over here which is not really under the control of modern Russia. Russia, under the direction of N. Kruschieva is trying to rise from the conditions of serfdom it endured under the czar and Stalin. If the Old World Stalinists over throw our government, they will turn on Russia and subvert the entire world to Old World Stalinism. Russia realizes this. If we have war, that will be the reason: the war of modern Russia against the Old World Stalinism transplanted in America. Russia suffered terribly under her former governments and I think N. Kruschieva should be encouraged to help the Russians rise above it especially from a spiritual stand point. I doubt very much that the Old World Stalinists over here realize the situation or have so planned it. But they are dealing with our culture which is extremely different and such an explosion is likely to occur unless it is controlled toward constructive endeavors.

I suppose you think it odd that I write to you so often and so much. But you are no stranger to me. I have the faculty of going where I wish spiritually and as such I understand you quite well. My every ideal, ambition and desire has been betrayed through communist influence..except my father, the Christian Religion and you. I like to forget my troubles in reading the Bible and the words you write. I suppose many, many people admire you. But no one needs the encouragement afforded by your ideals and standards more than I. I wish you the greatest happiness and success with your work for that makes me happy, too.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

MASTERS OF DECEIT

I heard over the radio that you are writing a book. I believe you have a lot to say in that book. Could it be transcribed to a record so that blind people like me could listen to it?

You do not know me, But I know you. While I worked with the US Government Shipping Board I was in Philadelphia where the let-up fleet was. At that time there were rumors that thieves were planning to strip the fleet of valuables. I was there as an undercover man to discover the people who abused their privilege to be on the Board, a task which I was able to fulfill. My boss was Frank Burke, Manager of the Investigation Dept. of the Shipping Board who had been with the Treasury Dept. 35 years. I also remember that when you were to take a job as Director of the Bureau of Investigation Mr. Burke also was in line for the job having been recommended to a group of Congressmen and his son, also [redacted] all worked for the Department then under William Burns whom you succeeded. Do you remember Congressman Husted? I applied for him many times to try to get him into your office. He did not want a political job so transferred the department so that politics had no weight. No Congressman could apply to your office, so I recommended myself to a political appointment in the values division, the Labor Dept., as Sergeant-at arms and other department work, and this is how I got to know you.

I remember Mr. Burke asked me to talk to Mr. Husted on his behalf and Mr. Husted said nothing could be done because of the political block. This was good for I have found political appointees do not do their work well for they work under a cloak of protection and have no obligation save to the Congressman or Senator who puts them there.

I also wrote a book and listed my activities in this country. I came from Italy, was illiterate. My passport had an inscription saying this. While I was in Washington I educated myself in a private school and in six years was in a position to write legible reports. I became a US Citizen in 1917 and believe that was the best thing I ever did. I went to Europe six times for the Shipping Board, working undercover, but when I came back from Europe Mr. Burke assigned me as an open man, gave me a badge and credentials. My boss became John Meehan. You must remember these people. I have a friend by name of Palma who knows you very well. He resigned and came to be an agent for Ford. With him I have often conversed about you for he felt you were a great man, sacrificing a large income for a chance to work for the US Government at $10,000 a year. I talked with President Hoover about you during and after his presidency. In my book I listed all these things, but lacked the angel you have. My book has been seen by many printers, has been called too voluminous and I have been told it would cost $5000 to print, which I do not have. When I left the Government service I had 17¢ in my pocket.

In 1935 I became blind. I used to know Mr. Burns who has an agency in White Plains now, but as my estimate goes, he was not a Mr. Hoover and that is why he had so many headaches. I am not asking you for anything personally. All I want is to see this country survive for I believe it is in great danger and I pray God President Eisenhower be illuminated so he doesn't get into trouble with the U.S.S.R for if he does they will beat us; for they are poor people, with nothing to lose and much to gain.

Very truly yours

BACKGROUND:

By radiogram dated 4/14/58 SAC Santoiana of San Juan advised that Mr. Haynes who is personally acquainted with Santoiana has spent a few days in Puerto Rico and is en route to Washington and New York to attend a meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors and Publishers. Santoiana stated that Haynes has a copy of "Masters of Deceit" which he desires to have autographed by the Director.

PERSONAL HISTORY:

"Who's Who in America" for 1958-1959 reflects that Haynes was born as Frantz Stetman Haynes on April 1, 1909, at Denver, Colorado. He has been in the newspaper business since 1930 and worked with the Copley Press papers, including the "San Pedro News Pilot" and the "South Daily Breeze" of Redondo Beach in California until 1956 when he assumed his present position. The 1957 edition of "Editor and Publisher" reflects that he is Vice President and Publisher of the Copley Press and also editor of the editorial page of the "Illinois State Journal." The "Illinois State Register" is also a publication of the Copley Press. The Journal and the Register combine in their Sunday edition and are known as "The Journal Register." Haynes had one son by his first wife whom he married in 1927 and a son and daughter by his second wife whom he married in 1930. His home and business addresses are in Springfield, Illinois.

RELATIONS OF BUREAU WITH NEWSPAPERS:

Editorial ticklers reflect that we have cordial relations with both the "Illinois State Register" and the "Illinois State Journal." Mr. V. Y. Dallman is the Editor of the "Illinois State Register." On May 7, 1957, the Director expressed his appreciation to Mr. Haynes for an editorial which had appeared in the "Illinois State Journal" and which favorably commented on the Director's stand on the publishing of the names of young hoodlums. Prior to this letter, the Bureau had corresponded with Mr. J. Emil Smith, the former editor of the "Illinois State Journal."
